

MAURICE DUCRET

BIOGRAPHY

---

Toronto painter Sheila Gregory obtained her BFA from York University in 1983 and has exhibited her work since 1988. Recent exhibitions include Flip at James Baird Gallery, St.John's, Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Gallery, Corner Brook, The Library & Gallery, Cambridge and Leo Kamen gallery, Toronto, and Traveler at the Agnes Etherington Art Centre, Kingston. Sheila Gregory's imagery is drawn from her travel/work experience with archaeological teams in the Canadian north and from the contemporary experience of living near a large urban city. The impact of her mark making is strong and raw: a storm of colour swirls unhindered; fluid lines fly randomly; shapes coalesce, collide and collapse continuously.
